

International Association of Penal Law (AIDP)
11th AIDP Young Penalists Symposium
In Kyoto

Victim-Centered Criminal Justice Program

14-15 September 2023

At Ritsumeikan University

Conference Room in the Hirai Kaichiro Memorial Library
Kinugasa Campus, Kitamachi 56-1 Tojiin Kita-ku, Kyoto City,
Kyoto 603 8577 JAPAN

← Event
page

International Association of Penal Law (AIDP)
11th AIDP Young Penalists Symposium
In Kyoto

Victim-Centered Criminal Justice

14-15 September 2023

At Ritsumeikan University

Conference Room in the Hirai Kaichiro Memorial Library

This symposium is the 11th symposium sponsored by the Young Penalists Committee (YPC) of the International Association of Penal Law (AIDP), an international academic society. The main purpose of this symposium series is to form a community of young criminal law scholars from around the world and to produce research presentations.

The 2023 symposium will be held in Kyoto, Japan (Ritsumeikan University).

The theme of the 11th Symposium in 2023
"Victim-Centered Criminal Justice"

In light of the serious problems of domestic violence and sexual assault under the pandemic, and the reports of war crimes following Russia's invasion of Ukraine, this symposium will review the position of criminal law from the perspectives of the victims and discuss the ideal form of "victim-centered criminal justice".

- This Symposium will be held in person and be livestreamed.
- Please register from here: <https://ochmgm.wixsite.com/megumiochi/general-8-1>
- Participation in the symposium is free. The proceedings will be published as a volume of RIDP Library series.
- This symposium is organized by the YPC of the AIDP. The scientific committee of the symposium is composed of OCHI Megumi, Renata BARBOSA, Francisco FIGUEROA and BAI Luyuan.

Day 1 (September 14th)

9:00 DOORS OPEN

Megumi Ochi (Ritsumeikan University, Chief of the Organizing Committee, YPC member)

10:00 KEYNOTE SPEECH

John Vervaele (University of Utrecht, AIDP President)

Makoto Ida (Chuo University, President of the Japanese National Group of AIDP)

Kanako Takayama (Kyoto University, Deputy Secretary General of AIDP)

11:00-12:30 PANEL 1: THEORETICAL ISSUES

Moderator: John Vervaele (University of Utrecht, AIDP President)

Reframing Criminal Justice with a Gender Perspective: Reshaping the Role of the Victim in Cases of Gender Violence

Bruna Diniz (University of Sao Paulo, Brazil)

Realization of the Victim's Interest and Rethinking of the Purpose of Criminal Proceedings: "Dual Purpose Theory of Criminal Proceedings in China" as a Point of View

Ma Roujia (Osaka University, Japan)

The New Restorative Justice in Italy: Evolutionary Scenarios of the Protection of the Victim between Natural Persons and Entities

Valentina Aragona (University of Calabria, Italy)

Lunch break

14:30-16:00 PANEL 2: THE IMPACTS ON SUBSTANTIVE LAW

Moderator: Kanako Takayama (Kyoto University, Deputy Secretary General of AIDP)

Reproductive Violence within Armed Groups as War Crimes: A Recognition from a Victim-centered within Colombia's Constitutional Court

María José Sánchez Sánchez (University of Madrid, Spain)

The Role of Memory Laws in Eradication Revictimization: The Issue of Genocide Denial

Mohammed Rashid Hassan (University of Human Development, Iraq)

Some are More Equal than Others: The Problem of the Recognition of Modern Slavery Victims in Brazil's Judicial Decisions

Gustavo de Carvalho Marin (Federal University of Uberlândia, Brazil)

João Victor Palermo Gianecchini (University of São Paulo, Brazil)

Ana Carolina Oliveira Sousa (Federal University of Uberlândia, Brazil)

Lucas de Almeida Barcelar (Federal University of Uberlândia, Brazil)

16:15-18:30 SPECIAL PANEL BY PRACTITIONERS

TRANSFORMATIVE JUSTICE IN PRACTICE: COMMUNICATION WITH THE VICTIMS

Moderator: Megumi Ochi

Challenges in Incorporation of Victims in International Criminal Justice

Gilbert Bitti (Judge, Kosovo Specialist Chambers)

Legal Restrictions on the Victims' Role at International Courts and Tribunals

Teodora Jugrin (Legal Advisor, Kosovo Specialist Chambers)

Forensic Interview with Child Victims

Kazuko Tanaka (Prosecutor, Tokyo High Public Prosecutors Office)

Communication with Victims from Local Perspectives: The case of Northern Uganda

Hiroko Kawaguchi (Postdoctoral Researcher, Osaka University)

*This panel is sponsored by Institute of Humanities, Human and Social Science, Ritsumeikan University

Day 2 (September 15th)

9:00-10:30 PANEL 3: INVESTIGATIVE PHASE

Moderator: Moderator: John Vervaele (University of Utrecht, AIDP President)

Digitalization and Democratization of Documenting Efforts for International Criminal Justice: How Much Space for Revictimization Sensitivity: Polish Insights from Ukrainian War Experience

Kaja Kowalczywska (University of Wrocław, Poland)

Crowdsourcing 'Citizen Evidence' – Digital Participation of Civilian Population during the Armed Conflict between Russia and Ukraine

Artem Galushko (University of Norway)

Police Interview of Adult Sexual Assault Victims: A Comparison of the Australian and Chinese Approaches

Zeng Yuanjun (Southwest University of Political Science and Law, China)

10:30-12:30 PANEL 4: TRIAL PHASE

Moderator: Luyuan Bai (Southwest University of Political Science and Law, China)

The Role of the Victim Impact Statement in the Sentencing Hearing in Common Law Jurisdictions: Balancing the Interests of Victims and Defendants

Freya Rock (University of Cambridge, United Kingdom)

The Admissibility of the Forensic Interview: Toward the Appropriate and Effective Use of Children's Statements in Court

Yuto Yokoyama (Hiroshima University, Japan)

Private Accessory Prosecutors and their Influence on German Criminal Proceeding

Maria Gahn (Saarland University, Germany)

The Admissibility of the Prior Sexual Conduct of Rape Victims from a Comparative Perspective

Jiahui Shi (Sichuan University, China)

Lunck break

14:00-15:30 PANEL 5: RESTORATION AND REPARATION

Moderator: Luyuan Bai (Southwest University of Political Science and Law, China)

Restoration through Retribution: Rethinking Reparations Orders in Light of Ntaganda

Christos Papachristopoulos (University of Birmingham, United Kingdom)

Development and Improvement of Criminal Compensation Standards with a Victim-Centered Approach in China

Chao Yang (Beijing Normal University, China)

When Should We Penalize the Offender and When Should We Correct Them? The Matter of Restorative and Rehabilitation Approaches to Punishing Reflected in the Czech Criminal Law Regarding both Natural Persons and Legal Entities

Vendula Vymazalová & Ondřej Julíček (Masaryk University, Czech)

16:00-18:00 MAX PLANCK PANEL ON CENTERING VICTIMS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE: PHILOSOPHICAL AND LEGAL PERSPECTIVES

Moderator/Introduction: Emmanouil Billis (Research Group Leader, Max Planck Institute)

Commentator: Nandor Knust (Associate Professor, UiT The Arctic University of Norway)

What Is the Role of the Victim in Criminal Law Theory?

Valerij Zisman (Postdoctoral Researcher, Max Planck Institute)

Making Victims Relevant: Republican Freedom and the Justification of Criminal Punishment

Alexandra Giannidi (Doctoral Researcher, University of Cambridge & Otto Hahn Fellow, Max Planck Institute)

Towards More Rational Sentencing: Exploring a Victim-Centered Approach and the Role of Computer-Aided Sentencing

Linus Ensel (Doctoral Researcher, Max Planck Institute)

Assessing Restorative Practices: A Critical Analysis for Gender-Based Violence Cases and their Survivors/Victims

Cristina Valega Chipoco (Doctoral Researcher, Max Planck Institute)

*This panel is sponsored by the OHG of the Max Planck Institute for the Study of Crime, Security and Law

CLOSING

Contacts

- HP: www.youngpenalists.com
- Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/penalists>
- Instagram: https://www.instagram.com/youngpenalists_aidp/
- LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/penalists/>
- Organizing Committee: 11thypcsymposium@gmail.com or ypc@youngpenalists.com

This entire event is financially sponsored by

- Egusa Foundation for International Cooperation in the Social Sciences
- JSPS KAKENHI 23K12376
- Ritsumeikan University

